I have the honor to state that as per Section 88 (2) of the Municipal Regulation if any person bringing into the City limits any conveyance or package refuses to permit the Octroi Officer to inspect the contents of the same for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any dutiable articles, that Officer has to cause the conveyance or package to be taken before a Magistrate or such Officer of the Municipal Council appointed by Government in this behalf by name or office who shall cause the inspection to be made in his presence

As a good deal of delay and inconvenience will be caused both to the public and to the department if the aid of a magistrate has to be sought for in such cases, I request that Government as may be pleased to appoint the Municipal Commissioner to make such inspections.

I have the honor to be
